

NOKIA Asia Pacific CEO Summit 2007 Event

of October 4, 2007 at The Bali Purnati Center for the Arts

Multi-sensorial experience inspired by the fusion of traditional Indonesian craft and values and Modern aesthetics. Melding food, music and art, be taken on an interactive dinner theatre production - conceptualized and produced by Bali Purnati's Artistic Director Rama Soepratto, in collaboration with Chef Chris Salans of Mozaic Restaurant.

THE DINNER

CHEF CHRIS SALANS of the famed MOZAIC group has been hailed as a creative chef whose innovative fusion of Indonesian flavours and eastern cooking traditions have garnered him international acclaim. Recognized by the prestigious European association, tradition and quality as a member of the "Les Grande Tables Du Monde", Mozaic Restaurant has a strong following and has been voted as one of 2 best restaurants in southeast Asia. This 3 star Michelin trained maestro is the creative mind behind tonight's innovative menu selection. Bringing together the best of east and west, tonight's menu was carefully created by Chef Salans and designed to weave in with the accents and theme of the entertainment programme

THE PERFORMANCES

Born to a Dutch father and Egyptian Mother, singer LAURA FYGI celebrated her 15th anniversary last year as an internationally recognized performer. She combined her love for the Great American Songbook and Jazz evergreens with her beautiful voice to create an evening of classic splendor.
